PUBLIC HEARING PUBLIC HEARING
On November 22, 1995, the Federal Communications Commission designated for hearing the applications of Rainbow Broadcasting Company for an extension of time to construct and for assignment of construction permit for Station WRBW (TV). Channel 65, Orlando, Florida.

The hearing is scheduled to commence at the Federal Communications Commission. Washington, D.C., at 10:00 a.m. on March 26, 1996, on the following issues:

1. To determine whether Rainbow intentionally violated Sections 1.1208 and 1.1210 of the Commission: ax parterules by soliciting a third party to call the Commission on Rainbow's behalf, and by meeting with Commission staff to discuss the merits of Rainbow's application proceedings.

2. To determine whether Rainbow made misrepresentations of fact or was lacking in candor with respect to its financial qualifications regarding its ability to construct and initially operate its station, in violation of Section 74.123(a) of the Commission's rules or otherwise.

3. To determine whether Rainbow made misrepresentations of fact or was lacking in candor regarding the nature of the tower fligation in terms of its failure to construct in connection with its fifth and sixth extension applications, in violation of Section 73.3534(b) of the Commission's rules or otherwise.

4. To determine whether Rainbow has demonstrated that under the circumstances either grant of a waiver of Section 73.3534(b) is justified.

5. To determine, in light of the ovidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether Rainbow is qualified to be a Commission incensee and whether grant of the subject applications serves the public interest, convenience and necessistic.

sity.
Rainbow's applications and as-sociated material are available for public inspection at the station, 2000 Universal Studios Pla-za, Suite 200, Orlando, Florida, during regular business hours. COR/16690 JAN 4,5,8,9,1996
